Wow this is such an unnecessarily rude and unhelpful response. I'd just emailed John at 10:54 and Cc'd Karen Dare, the CEO of Communify, so we'll see if he says anything different.

Thanks for sending that through and the photo as well – it's great, thank you! I'll let you know when the post is up.

Cheers,
Steph

Good morning David
Yes this information was always available to you but with your limited engagement and Situation, it has made this very difficult. I will follow this up for you though I don't think there is any vacancies as it's difficult to get into the hotel. Non the less I will make some enquiries.
Thank you
