Hi David, just a quick update. I assume you've heard from Rebecca Levingston by now. Michael and I spoke with her earlier this arvo, and she said she'd be contacting you next to hopefully arrange a pre-recorded interview to air tomorrow morning. She also asked Michael to go on live in the morning to discuss this as well as broader issues with the social housing waitlist etc, which he is more than happy to do.

We decided to wait until after the interview to put something up on Facebook, mainly so that the Department doesn't get a heads up on how best to respond/skirt around the issues.

I also wanted to check whether you'd been in touch with Rob Wheeler recently? I know he was keen to help however possible. I tried ringing him earlier but couldn't get a hold of him.

Cheers,
Steph
