Hey David, thanks for that update.

Are you planning on taking any support to your meeting with the Department? I reckon taking someone with you would be a good idea (Rob came to mind), just so they don't feel like they try to intimidate you into backing down.

I'll try to get in touch with Jo Sampford to get her thoughts on the warrant/appeal timeline situation. I assume you haven't heard back yet?

We'll send a follow up letter from Michael to the Department and QCAT, highlighting their BS suggestion of Park Hotel being used as alternative accommodation when it's 1) Temporary and we have no information on what the arrangement would be, and 2) There's likely no vacancy anyway, according to John Araneda.

We'll make a post of Facebook, and create an event for a protest starting at 9am on 17 June (an hour before the cops are meant to show up). I know we've spoken about this before, but can you please confirm whether you're ok with us organising that and sharing your story publicly? We would just use your first name and wouldn't include your actual address, but would pick a spot nearby to meet at on the day.

Jonno has offered to co-host the event, and can share it throughout his activist networks, which is a fantastic resource. He can also bring some banners/signs against evictions. I'll ask Elizabeth if she can speak on the day and also co-host + share the event.

Jonno made a suggestion that we ask someone from SEQUR to speak as well, and I figured Sam might be interested? Can you please share their contact details with me?

Finally, I just wanted to share this piece that Jonno wrote about how they successfully stopped an eviction like this back in 2018 as a bit of hope and inspiration: How We Helped Stop an Eviction into Homelessness - Jonathan Sri

Hope you're well and speak soon.

Steph
