Hello David and Tim,

I am writing to you both to see if you are willing to join the fight to keep me in my public housing apartment. You may have heard on ABC Radio last week that the Queensland Government is set to evict me next Friday 17 June. If you missed the interview, I've attached it to this email. The Minister for Housing responded yesterday and I can forward a copy of her interview if you'd like to hear it.

The journey to this point over the last six months is riddled with what one friend described as a "comedy of errors". But this is no laughing matter. My life is being upended by this callous Government.

The system has failed me badly and the Government is gleefully ridding itself of what it sees as a nuisance. But you should never believe the government on anything. Unfortunately, it appears QCAT has believed the government's fiction and sided with them. I have not been given any opportunity to challenge the fiction spouted by the government, even though I could easily provide evidence to refute it. Nor has the Government even been asked to substantiate their fictitious claims. Their word was simply taken as gospel. A woman in a Saudi court has more rights it seems.

The Palazchuk government has been rocked by a seemingly continuous series of scandals for a long time now. I suspect something is amiss with the handling of my case also, but my request for details has been stuck in the system for months. The longer it goes on, the more suspicious I get of what they're trying to hide.

I want to explain all the details but I have to go out in 15 minutes so for now, I just wanted to introduce my situation to you in the hope that you would get on board and speak out on my behalf. I have sent you a few emails and other documents to give you some background. If you're interested in taking up this cause, shoot me a message back and I'll be able to provide more information later.

If you'd like to chat, please call me on 0402 599170.

Thanks for taking time to read this.

Regards,

David Barker
