Hi Sam, thanks for your email.

An interesting twist in my case happened very late on Friday afternoon, when I received an email from the Communiify support worker glowing about the fact that my referral to the Park Hotel had been approved. He is coming to my place tomorrow to brief me on the "intake process" which apparently happens on Tuesday.

This is a blatant cover-up by the Government so I can't say I'm going to be homeless after Friday. If I don't accept the Park Hotel, they can say it's not their fault if I end up homeless.

I have started packing up my stuff. I've hired a moving truck for three days starting Tuesday. Help to load and unload would be good if anyone has time.

The Park Hotel is only a temporary solution. It will cost Queensland taxpayers nearly $1,000 per week, and increase the amount of rent I have to pay by 35%. There is no car parking and I won't have access to most of my possessions which will be in storage. It's like a prison without bars. There's no knowing how long I'll be in there either. It's not an acceptable solution and the community should oppose it.

I'll forward you some of the other correspondence which has gone through last week to keep you up to speed.

Jono Sri's office has suggested we ramp up the campaign and take it to print media and TV. Contact will be made tomorrow or Tuesday to get this rolling. My face could be on SEQ screens in just a few days.

1,000 flyers promoting the protest were put in letterboxes around my place late last week. I ensured that the three known complainants missed out on this flyer.

I will get back to you soon about the ZZZ interview.

Thanks for your continued activism.

Regards,

David Barker

Hi David,

How are you feeling in the lead up to Friday?

Just letting you know that we are trying to organise to get as many members of SEQR to come to the protest organised by Michael Berkman's office on Friday. It's really great that Michael has organised this and the union is keen to make sure we can do whatever you want or need on the day, so I was wondering if you had an idea of what you might be expecting or wanting?

By the way, I have listened to both you, and Minister Enoch on the ABC and I have to say that you come across much better. Sadly the minister doesn't sound very trustworthy, particularly when considering the points you made in your last email.

SEQR has also been invited to speak on radio station 4ZZZ on Tuesday and wondering if there's anything in particular you'd like us to say?

Please let us know if there's anything else SEQR or myself might be able to help with in the meantime.

Warm regards

Sam
