Hi John,

There's a spanner in the works. QCAT have refused the application to stay the decision I filed yesterday. I was not aware of that possibility and it makes no logical sense, but the speed of their decision suggests to me that I must have made an error on the form.

The Warrant of Possession is therefore still active. I saw it this morning when I visited the Indooroopilly Police Station and spoke with the officer there. They confirmed that the Warrant may be executed between 10 and 24 May from 8am to 6pm. Department of Housing have arranged to have it executed at 1000 on 16 May, but there is nothing to stop the police from acting earlier.

I have been in contact with QSTARS to learn what I did wrong with the stay application. I'm waiting to hear back from them. I will probably file another application to stay on Monday. I do intend to appeal the QCAT decision on multiple grounds.

Thank you for your support.

Regards,

David Barker
