Tenancy Reference Number: 51600013

Dear David,

You are in breach of your State Tenancy Agreement.

The reasons why you have breached your tenancy agreement are set out in the attached Notice to Remedy and you need to fix this by 27/10/2021.

We are committed to helping people in need of housing. So that we can work together, we ask that you comply with your tenancy agreement.

What do I need to do now?

1. Please read the attached Notice to Remedy – it details how you have breached your tenancy agreement.

2. If you would like further information about how we made the decision and what this means for you, or you believe the decision is unreasonable, please contact us. If, after talking to us, you still believe the decision is unreasonable, you can ask us to reconsider this decision. Please tell us any other information you think we should consider.

3. We can connect you with support services who can help you manage your tenancy. Please contact us if you would like to discuss how they can help. We will work with you and your support services in managing your tenancy.

What do I need to do?

What happens if I don't fix this breach (non-compliance)?

If you do not take steps to fix this breach, or contact us, we may issue you with a Notice to Leave. You will have two weeks to leave your property.

If you have any questions, please call or visit your local Housing Service Centre.

We thank you for your cooperation.

Yours sincerely

Leisa
