SINGLES – The big news on this week's chart is the move of the recently double-A listed single Mascara / Leave Me Alone by Killing Heidi into the No.1 spot. The Victorian band thus become the first local act to have an Australian No.1 single since May 1997 when their Roadshow / Warners labelmates Savage Garden spent the last of their eight weeks on top with Truly, Madly, Deeply. The two new singles in this week's top 10 are both by acts backing up after debut top 10 success. Rising six places to No.9 is What A Girl Wants by Christina Aguilera who hit No.2 first time out last September with Genie In A Bottle, while at No.10 is S Club Party by S Club 7 whose first hit Bring It All Back reached No.3 last November.

No.12 PRAY – Tina Cousins. Although somewhat removed from his 1980s successes with the likes of Bananarama, Mel & Kim, Rick Astley and our Kylie, this week's chart sees a resurgence in the fortunes of Pete Waterman who is responsible for not only Tina but also Steps who have the second highest debut of the week (see below). This, the second single from her Killing Time album (No.76 last October), is already the English singer's biggest Australian hit, surpassing last November's No.14 peak of her only other hit Forever.

No.21 SAY YOU'LL BE MINE / BETTER THE DEVIL YOU KNOW – Steps. Like their previous hit Heartbeat / Tragedy (No.10 March 1999) this, the seventh Australian hit single for the British vocal quintet is a double-A release featuring a remake and an original. While their first remake was of a Bee Gees hit, this time they have selected Kylie Minogue's 1990 hit Better The Devil You Know which reached No.4 in both Britain and Australia in January and June of that year respectively.

No.59 SEX BOMB – Tom Jones. This is the second Australian single from Tom's album of collaborations Reload (No.3 October 1999) following Burning Down The House (with The Cardigans). This time the Welsh superstar has teamed up with Mousse T. whose only previous chart excursion downunder was with the song Horny (No.13 November 1998). Intriguingly, this song has not yet been released as a single in the UK where the album's second single is Tom's duet with Cerys Matthews (of Catatonia) on Baby It's Cold Outside.

No.67 ALL I REALLY WANT – Kim Lucas. The first hit single for this British thespian and singer was produced in Italy by Roberto Turatti and features mixes by hit act of the moment Eiffel 65. The single has become a hit across Europe, particularly in the Southern countries of Italy and Spain where it made the top 10.

No.78 IMPOSSIBLE LOVE – Machine Gun Fellatio. Sporting the unlikely names Pinky Beecroft, Chit-Chat Von Loopinstab, Threek Short and The Love Shark, this bunch of local misfits first came to the attention of the public through their track *Mutha F*cka On A Motorbike* which has become a JJJ favourite. Prior to the charting of this, their mainstream debut, their main claim to fame (well, Pinky & Chit-Chat at least) has been co-writing credits on the Whitlams song No Aphrodisiac (No.59 January 1998).

No.93 STACKED ACTORS – Foo Fighters. Are Dave Grohl and his band of merry men talking about the same thing as Tom Jones and Mousse T on their debuting hit Sex Bomb??? Perhaps not, but whatever the case, the second hit single from the album There Is Nothing Left To Lose (No.5 last November) is leading one to the conclusion that the band probably still have much to gain from the release. The album's other single, Learn To Fly reached No.36 two months ago and is now in the No.79 spot.

ALBUMS - For the past three weeks the same ten albums have been settled at the top of the ARIA Australian albums chart. The year is now four weeks old and for all of that time Macy Gray's album Macy Gray On How Life Is has monopolised the top spot. The only blemish on the album's report card this week is in the South Australia / Northern Territory chart where the Savage Garden album Affirmation (No.2 nationally) returns to the top for the first time since early last December.

No.59 CHRISTINA AGUILERA – Christina Aguilera. Released last October, this album steadfastly refused to chart in the ARIA top 100 despite the twelve week top 10 run and No.2 peak of the ex-Mousketeer's first single Genie In A Bottle. It has taken top 10 recognition of her follow-up single What A Girl Wants (No.9 this week) to spur sufficient buyers to kick start the chart run of this, her debut album.

No.91 BEGINNINGS (1989-1990) – Shania Twain. The extensive liner notes on this CD give the reader a thorough bio of the life of Eileen Regina "Shania" Twain from her birth in August 1965 through to her World conquering albums The Woman In Me (No.17 February 1997) and Come On Over (No.1 February 1999). Nine of the twelve songs on this particular CD were written and recorded by Shania with Paul Sebu (who had previously written for Lee Aaron) through 1989 and 1990.

No.100 INTRODUCING – Ruben Gonzalez. Born in 1919, Ruben is one of the Cuban legends "rediscovered" by Ry Cooder and featured on the album Buena Vista Social Club (No.7 two weeks ago and No.8 again this week). Originally released in August 1997, this is one of several albums that are benefiting from the current screening around Australia of the documentary film Buena Vista Social Club.
