THE ARIA REPORT

Chartifacts!

SINGLES – An obvious candidate for a future cosmetic advertising campaign, Killing Heidi's double-A listed single Mascara / Leave Me Alone strengthens its position in its second week in the national No.1 position with only the Western Australia chart now remaining in the hands of the Macy Gray hit I Try. The only change to the make-up (pun intended) of the top 10 sees the long running No.2 hit Don't Call Me Baby by Madison Avenue falling to the return of another Aussie act Vanessa Amorosi whose former No.6 hit (from last December) Absolutely Everybody climbs back up into the No.10 position.

No.24 SHOW ME THE MEANING OF BEING LONELY – Backstreet Boys. The five man vocal group from the South Eastern USA are currently sitting on a sequence of six consecutive top 10 singles that commenced late in 1997 with Everybody (Backstreet's Back) (No.3 December 1997) and runs through to Larger Than Life (also No.3 last October). We will watch over the next few weeks to see if this, their tenth Australian hit can take their tally to seven straight in the top 10...

No.34 BACK AT ONE – Brian McKnight. This single, which reached No.2 on the Billboard Hot 100 (and is still at No.4 on that chart), is the first Australian hit for the 25 year old R&B singer who has been recording since his late teens. His only previous Australian chart experience was as a guest artist on the single Love Is which reached No.49 for Vanessa Williams in August 1993.

No.35 RE-ARRANGED / N2GETHER NOW – Limp Bizkit. This is the second Australian chart single for the dual Grammy nominated five man band from Jacksonville, Florida. The first Australian hit for Wes Borland, Fred Durst, John Otto, Sam Rivers and DJ Lethal was Nookie which reached No.13 last August. Both singles are from their breakthrough album Significant Other which reached No.5 last October.

No.80 GLOKENPOP – Spiderbait. Glokenpop by name, pure pop as only Janet, Kram and Whit can do it by nature... The trio's eleventh chart single is the fourth from their repackaged (and resurgent) album Grand Slam (No.10 April 1999) which re-enters the top 100 at No.88 this week. The album's other singles have been Shazam! (No.46 March 1999), Stevie (No.81 May 1999) and Plastic (No.84 October 1999).

No.84 SUMMERTIME OF OUR LIVES – A1. Their first Australian hit, this is the second of three 1999 UK top 10 hits (No.5 there in September) for the quartet of Ben Adams, Christian Ingebrigsten, Paul Marazzi and Mark Read. From their forthcoming debut album Here We Come, the song was co-written by Peter Cunnah of D:Ream fame.

No.95 8 MILES HIGH – Superheist. This EP is the first Australian top 100 chart entry for the Melbourne hard rock quartet of Roderick McLeod, D.W. Norton, Sean P. and Si Durrant. The band have spent quite a bit of time on the road leading up to this release, having played support on the recent Australian tours of both Sepultura and Fear Factory.

ALBUMS - Despite slipping from the top spot of two more of the ARIA State charts (Queensland and Western Australia) Macy Gray On How Life Is still sits comfortably at No.1 on the National ARIA chart for the fifth straight week. As in the two previous weeks, Macy Gray's most immediate threat comes from Savage Garden's former chart topping album Affirmation which this week adds No.1 spot in Western Australia to that of South Australia / Northern Territory which it reclaimed last week. The final State chart summit (Queensland) belongs to the Red Hot Chili Peppers album Californication which hit the top of all the State charts for a single week last June.

This week's chart sees the odd occurrence of two albums spending their second week in the top 10 more than six months after their top 10 debuts within weeks of each other last year. At No.8 this week is Enema Of The State which debuted at No.5 for Blink 182 at the start of June last year and at No.10 is a repackaged tour version of the Chemical Brothers album Surrender which made its first chart appearance at No.6 at the end of last June... This week's two top 100 debuting albums are:

No.20 RULES OF THE ROAD – Lee Kernaghan. The 'Boy from the bush' is back in town with this being his sixth ARIA chart album in as many years and the biggest since his career best hit Hat Town (No.7 March 1998). In between, his seasonal release The Christmas Album climbed to No.31 in December 1998.

No.54 HUMAN TRAFFIC – Soundtrack. Described in NME magazine as "... the first decent film about the chemical generation for the chemical generation." Screening in Australia from Australia Day, this movie about the UK Club scene (shot in Cardiff, Wales) was directed by 25 year old Justin Kerrigan. The double CD soundtrack features dialog cuts in between tracks remixed by famed English DJ Pete Tong.
