Chartifacts!

SINGLES – History repeats itself this week (as it often does). In May 1984, less than a year after Michael Jackson had moonwalked Beat It up to No.2, comedian Weird 'Al' Yankovic dismembered and reconstituted the song as Eat It and promptly devoured all in his way to the No.1 spot in just three weeks. This week the pureblood Australian yobbo Chris Franklin emulates Weird 'Al' as Bloke, his dissection of the No.2 Meredith Brooks hit Bitch (July 1997) races (in a blue collar kind of way) straight to No.1 also in only its third week on the chart. While Eiffel 65 bounce back into the top 10 with their second hit Move Your Body (at No.7 after debuting at No.10 two weeks ago), All Saints have the only brand new top 10 entry of the week, debuting at No.5 with Pure Shores, their third Australian top 10 hit single.

No.5 PURE SHORES – All Saints. Produced by the man of the moment, William Orbit, the all female quartet's fifth Australian hit is the lead track from the Soundtrack to the fast approaching Leonardo DiCaprio "skin flick" The Beach. With the girls' second album now nearing release, this single this week became their fourth No.1 in the UK.

No.17 KISS (WHEN THE SUN DON'T SHINE) – Vengaboys. The unusual dance troupe of backroom boys DJs Danski and Delmundo and their stage presence in the form of performers Kim, Roy, Robin and Denise have enjoyed a charmed first year on the charts with this being their fifth Australian hit. Already better performed than their last hit We're Going To Ibiza (No.26 last december), this UK No.3 single is their biggest hit since they had back to back No.2 hits with We Love To Party and Boom, Boom, Boom, Boom! last May and August respectively.

No.68 THE NOTORIOUS B.I.G. – The Notorious B.I.G. He was big in life, weighing around 127kg (roughly 20 stone on an old set of scales) but on the Australian charts Christopher Wallace, aka Biggie Smalls aka Notorious B.I.G. has been even bigger in the afterlife, having had all of his success posthumously. His first Australian top 100 single Hypnotize hit No.63 in July 1997, four months after his murder, followed a further four months later with his biggest hit to date, Mo Money, Mo Problems (No.10 November 1997). On this, his third Australian hit single, he is joined by Puffy Combs rapping about himself over the convieniently titled Duran Duran hit Notorious (No.17 December 1986).

No.76 GET NAKED – Methods Of Mayhem. From their self titled debut album, this is the first chart single for the noisy all-star lineup fronted by Tommy Lee with rapper TiLo, Limp Bizkit's Fred Durst and on this particular track, the not-so-demure Lil' Kim.

No.78 RAINBOW COUNTRY – Bob Marley Vs. Funkstar De Luxe. Even though he was a legend long before he succumbed to cancer in May 1981, Bob Marley's only significant Australian chart single to that time had been the 1978 top 20 hit Is This Love. Intriguingly, this week's debut gives him three singles simultaneously in the top 100, a feat he never came near achieving when alive. His other current hits are Turn Your Lights Down Low with Lauryn Hill (at No.85) and Sun Is Shining also with Funkstar De Luxe (at No.75).

No.96 MICKEY – Lolly. The second (and biggest) of three UK top 10 hits for this bubblegum singer from England's West Midlands area, this remake of Toni Basil's June 1982 No.1 hit reached No.4 in the UK last September. Her first Australian hit, it is from a forthcoming release cryptically titled My First Album.

ALBUMS - With Moby now breathing down her neck at No.2 with his Play album and big upcoming new releases by AC/DC, Oasis and Killing Heidi over the next few weeks, Macy Gray appears more vulnerable now than at any other time during her eight weeks at the top of the chart. South Australian band Testeagles and UK Blues outfit Gomez both reach the Australian top 10 for the first time this week. Testeagles have achieved the feat on debut with their first album Non Comprehendus while Liquid Skin, the second album for Gomez is benefiting from their recent series of dates in Australia. Meanwhile, Come On Over has finally fallen from the top 10 after 61 consecutive weeks, equalling the unbroken span of Brothers In Arms by Dire Straits through 1985 and 1986. Of course Shania's album had spent 16 weeks in the top 10 before commencing this latest run, leaving her album clearly out in front in terms of overall longevity in the ARIA top 10.

No.8 NON COMPREHENDUS – Testeagles. Last year saw the release of two singles from this Adelaide based band, Turn That Shit Up (No.54 July 1999) and Underdog (No.74 November 1999), both taken from this their debut album. According to the bio the album produced by Paul McKercher (Pantera and Grinspoon) samples funky drum loops, techno synth and travels from heavy to experimental to ambient.

No.11 BLOODFLOWERS – The Cure. Twenty years down the rock 'n' roll highway and The Cure release their 13th studio album. Intended as the final part of a trilogy that began with the 1982 top 50 album Pornography, and continued with Disintegration (No.9 June 1989). Recorded in the UK and co-produced by Robert Smith and Paul Corkett, this "could be the threatened 'last ever' Cure album". Their last album Galore peaked at No.45 in November 1997.

No.23 EUROPOP – Eiffel 65. Late last year saw the release of the No.1 dance tune Blue (Da Ba Dee), the first single to be taken from this their debut album. At No.7 this week is the second single Move Your Body. The Australian album release from this Italian trio features a bonus disc with extra remixes of the singles, plus videos and a brand new Nick Skitz Megamix called Slinky.

No.30 SUPERGRASS – Supergrass. Originally called Theodore Supergrass, (and before that The Jennifers) these four British lads have chosen to record at the same studio (Sawmills in Cornwall, UK) since the start of their career. This self titled album is their third to chart in Australia following I Should Coco (No.57 April 1996) and In It For The Money (No.28 June 1997). The new album features 12 new tracks including the single Pumping Up Your Stereo.

No.43 INNA STYLES – Wicked Beat Sound System. Based in Sydney Wicked Beats started when Dave, a local DJ met sound engineer Damien in the early 1990s and their sound of "hip-hop, soul and slow grooves" was born. Since the release of their debut album Music From The Core in 1997 MC K.Y.E. has left, leaving Linda Janssen as their main vocalist. The new album lists 12 new tracks including the single Stay With Me 'Til Dawn, released last November.

No.78 PIECES IN A MODERN STYLE – William Orbit. England's most noted ambient house music pioneer and producer / remixer (Madonna's *Ray Of Light, Blur and The Cure) enters the charts for the first time in his own right with this album that was "originally made as a form of relaxation for myself and friends". He re-invents 11 pieces of classical music from Vivaldi, Handel, Beethoven, and 20th century composers like Barber, Cage and Mascagni. The single Adagio For Strings (No.30 this week after peaking at No.23) is taken from this album.
