THE ARIA REPORT

Chartifacts!

SINGLES – The 'yobbo' rules for a second week with Chris Franklin now clearly at the top of all five of the ARIA State charts with Blake. After debuting at No.10 a couple of weeks ago, American teenage singer Jessica Simpson rejoins the top 10 at No.9 with I Wanna Love You: Forever while her even younger compatriot Mandy Moore makes a promo tour assisted leap from No.14 to No.5 with her first hit Candy.

No.31 STAND INSIDE YOUR LOVE – Smashing Pumpkins. This is the first chart appearance in almost a year and a half for one of the most consistently well performed Alternative acts through the 1990s. The US Great Lakes based band fronted by Billy Corgan scored eleven chart singles between Lull (No.74 August 1992) and Perfect (No.56 September 1998).

No.37 START MAKING SENSE – Area-7. One year ago this week, this Melbourne based ska band peaked at No.59 with their first chart single Bitter Words. With their Bitter And Twisted album due in stores toward the end of March, their third chart single follows the pattern established by its predecessors, making its most significant and immediate impact in Victoria where it is at No.18 this week.

No.41 WE THINK IT'S LOVE – Leah Haywood. This 23 year old Australian newcomer has certainly fallen on her feet! She has landed a recording deal that has seen her being produced in Sweden by Per Magnusson and David Kreuger (whose CVs include Backstreet Boys and Britney Spears). She also shares the songwriting credits on this track with Jörgen Elofsson whose claim to fame is as the songwriter on the Britney Spears hit Sometimes (No.2 last July).

No.76 NEVER LET YOU GO – Third Eye Blind. This is the first single from Blue, the second album from the quartet from the San Francisco Bay area whose self titled debut album (No.51 August 1997) produced three chart singles. This is already their second best performed single in this country behind their initial hit Semi-Charmed Life (No.8 September 1997).

No.82 GOT TO GET IT – Sisqo. Lifted from his album Unleash The Dragon (No.79 January 2000), this is the first solo hit single for the bottle bleached blonde member of Dru Hill. 1999 was a good year for his band as they notched up their first three hit singles including How Deep Is Your Love (No.13 May).

ALBUMS - Dance oriented No.1 hit singles are almost 'dime a dozen' these days, but it is rare for pure dance success to translate across to chart topping albums sales. This week Moby (aka Richard Melville Hall) is the first act since Jamiroquai last June (with Synkronized) to simultaneously occupy the top of ARIA's Dance and Mainstream albums charts. What is even more unusual about the Play album is that it has reached the top without the assistance of a major hit single, the bigger of its two chart offspring being Why Does My Heart Feel So Bad which is at No.34 this week after reaching No.33 in January. The only bulletted performer in the top 10 should come as no surprise with the Supernatural album leaping from No.10 to No.3 on the back of the multiple Grammy haul by Santana last week.

No.35 TELLING STORIES – Tracy Chapman. Tracy grew up in Cleveland, Ohio and "remembers making up songs since she was eight years old". Since those humble beginnings she has now released five albums, this album's predecessors being Crossroads (No.4 October 1989), Matters Of The Heart (No.23 May 1992), New Beginning (No.6 January 1996) and the self-titled debut album that peaked at No.2 in July 1988. The new album was produced by David Kershenbaum (who worked on her first two albums) and includes the new single also called Telling Stories.

No.69 WOGBOY – Soundtrack. After the success of the stage shows Wogs Out Of Work, Wog-A-Rama and Wogboys, comes the full-length feature film Wogboy. Written by Nick Giannopoulos and Chris Anastasiades, the film is inspired by the stage shows and features a soundtrack to match that includes the Love Theme, which is from the original score written by Cezary Skubiszewski. Other tracks include The Mavis's covering the Abba song Bang A Boomarang and Deni Hines with the Grace Jones classic Pull Up To The Bumper (No.36 this week).

No.74 ROAD KILL – Groove Terminator. This is the debut album chart entry for the DJ and mixmaster known as Groove Terminator. Starting in Adelaide and then moving to Sydney to concentrate on his remixing and producing, GT has remixed the likes of Grinspoon, Sound Unlimited and Savage Garden, as well as DJ'ed the Big Day Out and Livid. This album includes his last two singles Losing Ground (No.65 June 1998) and Here Comes Another One (No.73 January 2000).

No.81 GET SOME GO AGAIN – Rollins Band. The front man for this band is the notorious Henry Rollins, who started back in 1981 with the group Black Flag. This album has been recorded with a new line up... the pre-existing Los Angeles trio Mother Superior, comprising guitarist Jim Wilson, bassist Marcus Blake and drummer Jason Mackenroth. This is the fourth charting Rollins Band album following The End Of Silence (No.68 March 1992), Weight (No.10 April 1994) and Come In And Burn (No.38 May 1997).

No.97 GREATEST HITS – Daniel O'Donnell. Of his nine albums to be released in Australia, this is only Daniel's second to chart after Love Songs which peaked at No.36 in May last year. This 26 track CD includes the Irish easy listening singer's 1998 single Give A Little Love that peaked at No.82 and six new songs including My Own Donegal, Uno Mas and two songs that helped launch his career; My Donegal Shore and I Need You.
