THE ARIA REPORT

Chartifacts!

SINGLES – This week we see the Destiny's Child track Say My Name knock Bardot off the top spot after a two-week hold. Watch this space to see if they creep back up, as the television show draws to a close. Apart from that, still fairly quiet in the new entry category, with only four new releases making it into the top 100. Holiday by Naughty By Nature jumps from No.15 to No.9, and Summertime Of Our Lives from A1 moves up from No.100 to No.44.

No.6 HE WASN'T MAN ENOUGH – Toni Braxton. It's been a while since we've seen this young lady in the ARIA charts, in fact it was back in December 1997 that the single How Could An Angel Break My Heart peaked at No.87. This single produced by Rodney Jenkins is taken from her new album The Heat.

No.31 GENERATOR – Foo Fighters. This is the third single following Learn To Fly (No.36 November 1999) and Stacked Actors (No.82 January 2000) to be taken from their album There Is Nothing Left To Lose (No.5 November 1999). The single includes three Australian exclusive live tracks, two of which were recorded at the Metro in Sydney, and CDROM footage.

No.86 SYDNEY (SHOW ME THE LIFE) / AUSTRALIA FOREVER – Sing 2001. Sing 2001 is a collection of NSW students who are selected through audition from years 5 to 12. The title track includes 4000 singers (60 choirs) with Samantha McClymont as the soloist. The second track Australia Forever includes the same amazing amount of singers with soloists Rashamae Munro, Pauline Curuenavuli, Shaun Rennie and Diana Rouvas.

No.88 STAND TOUGH – Point Break. Three lads from the UK, Brett, Ollie and Declan enter the Australian (peaked at No.7 in the UK)-charts for the first time, with this single that features three remixes of the title track.

ALBUMS - At least this week the chart has seen a few new comers to the top 100. The Top spot held for the seventh week by Killing Heidi is under threat by the same rival who conquered Bardot in the singles chart this week. So will Destiny's Child album The Writing's On The Wall manage to crack the album charts next week, or will Bardots self titled album (released this week) make No.1. Cypress Hill's new double album Skull And Bones storms into a very respectable No.6, where at the bottom we have Real Live Woman by Trisha Yearwood entering the album charts for the first time since 1997.

No.6 SKULL AND BONES – Cypress Hill. The new album from hip-hop boys Cypress Hill comes with two discs. The first being the "Skull" disc, which features their trademark hip-hop sound. The second disc "Bones" showcases their "new rock sound", which has been recorded with a live band. Their last album IV peaked at No.22 in October 1998.

No.29 TALES FROM NEW YORK – THE VERY BEST OF SIMON & GARFUNKEL – Simon & Garfunkel. A collection this is, consisting of forty tracks, which include classic songs and a few rarities. All the track have been digitally remastered from the original source tapes, and chronicles their releases, from their first record The Sound Of Silence to their last My Little Town. Also included are We've Got A Groovy Thing Goin', Homeward Bound, Mrs. Robinson and Bridge Over Troubled Water.

No.45 FIGURE 8 – Elliott Smith. He began writing songs when he was fourteen, in his hometown of Portland in the US. His first entry into the album charts was with XO, which peaked at No.46 in March 1999. His new album was produced by Tom Rothrock and recorded in various studios including Abbey Road.

No.88 MARC ANTHONY – Marc Anthony. This is not only this Salsa singer's debut into the ARIA charts, but also his first album recorded in English. He has recorded duets with Jennifer Lopez (No Me Ames, from the album On The 6) and Tina Arena (I Want To Spend My Lifetime Loving You), which is included on this album as a hidden track. I Need To Know, his last single taken from this album peaked at No.20 in February this year.

No.93 ME MYSELF I – Soundtrack. This is the story of a woman who is entering her 30's, and slowly realising that she turned down Mr Right thirteen years ago. The film tells how she takes the place of her alternate self in the life she dreams of, possessing a husband, three kids and a dog. The soundtrack includes the classic hit Ca Plane Pour Moi by Plastic Bertrand and the original of the title track by Joan Armatrading, as well as the remake by Marie Wilson.

No.98 REAL LIVE WOMAN – Trisha Yearwood. Country folk / rock singer Trisha born in rural Monticello, Georgia, enters the top 100 album charts for the third time following her albums Songbook (No.22 September 1997) and Where Your Road Leads (No.31 July 1998). She began her musical career in Nashville working as a receptionist for a record label, and as a tour guide at the Country Music Hall Of Fame.
