THE ARIA REPORT

Chartifacts!

SINGLES - At the beginning of last year, she was a teenager almost unknown outside of her home State of Florida. Eighteen months later Britney Spears is an international superstar with a string of hits to her name. This week the list grows a little longer as Oops!... I Did It Again becomes her second Australian No.1 single a little more than a year after her first, Baby One More Time spent nine weeks on top between January and April last year. Two new songs enter this week's top 10 - with their new album Crush instore this week, veteran rock band Bon Jovi land their ninth Australian top 10 single with It's My Life, moving from No.15 to No.9 while Dru Hill member Sisqo hits the Australian top 10 for the very first time as Thong Song snaps from No.40 to No.10 for the week. His best chart result as a member of Dru Hill to date has been the No.13 peak last May of How Deep Is Your Love.

No.16 DAY & NIGHT - Billie. This Swindon, England-born singer is not yet 18 years old, but she is already a big star in the UK where this is her third No.1 single (beating the record set recently by Britney Spears as the youngest female artist to have had three UK No.1 singles). This song is her fifth Australian hit single since debuting in September 1998 and third to make the top 20 after Because We Want To (No.19 October 1998) and Honey To The Bee (No.6 June 1999).

No.54 SITTING DOWN HERE - Lene Marlin. Yet another teen female artist establishing herself on the charts, Lene Marlin Pedersen is a 19 year old from Tromsø, Norway. This is her second Australian hit following Unforgivable Sinner (No.48 last May).

No.72 KOOCHY - Armand Van Helden. Featuring the techno melody line from Gary Numan's 1980 top 10 debut hit Cars, this is the New York based producer's second Australian hit following You Don't Know Me (No.15 April 1999). The song, which is currently in the ARIA Club Chart at No.20, recently reached No.4 in the UK.

No.73 I LOVE YOU BUT... - Friendly. It has been a busy year for this Australian DJ whose real name is the tongue twisting Andrew Kornweibel. This is his third chart hit since last September when his debut single Some Kind Of Love Song made its debut at No.45 on the ARIA national chart. This was followed by the insistent groove track that was his second hit My Mother Was A DJ which reached No.89 this March.

No.91 BITTER WORDS / HIMBO - Area 7. This is the second bite at chart success for one of the two feature tracks on this CD single. Bitter Words was the first chart entry for this six year old Melbourne ska band, reaching No.59 in February 1999. Since then Stevo, Chucky T, Rohan, Dugald, Alistair, Toby and Daniel have charted with Second Class Citizen (No.29 November 1999) and Start Making Sense (No.37 February 2000). Their current album Bitter And Twisted returns to the chart at No.97 this week after originally debuting at No.6 back in March.

ALBUMS - For the second week in a row, new albums occupy the top two chart places with Matchbox Twenty outgunning newcomers A Perfect Circle everywhere except Western Australia. It's the second visit to the top of the Australian charts for the Matchbox men, coming two years and one week after Yourself Or Someone Like You reached the top for the first time. That album eventually went on to log six weeks at the top and establish itself as Australia's top seller of 1998. Those of you who watch the charts each week will be aware that debuts in either of the top two chart positions are quite common and that, while debuting quinellas are rarer, they are not unheard of (in fact they happened 22 times through the 1990s). However, this week marks the first time in ARIA chart history that the album chart has seen debuts in the top two positions for two weeks in a row following the debuts of Pearl Jam and Britney Spears last week.

No.1 MAD SEASON BY MATCHBOX TWENTY - Matchbox Twenty. Matchbox Twenty are Rob Thomas, Kyle Cook, Adam Gaynor, Brian Yale and Paul Doucette. In two years these guys have racked up two No.1 albums, their first being Yourself Or Someone Like You in 1998 and now this album, which has produced the single Bent (No.23 this week after peaking at No.19).

No.2 MER DE NOMS - A Perfect Circle. This is the debut release for the collective headed by Maynard Keenan (the lead singer of Tool) and Billy Howerdel (the guitar tech for Smashing Pumpkins and Nine Inch Nails). The group made its first public appearance in August 1999 in Los Angeles as part of a benefit gig for Keith Morris. Their single Judith taken from this album is currently at No.64 after peaking at No.25 last week.

No.18 TRILENIUM - Sash!. European DJ Sash! releases his third album following It's My Life (No.82 September 1997) and Life Goes On (No.34 September 1998). This album includes the single Adelante (No.4 April 2000) and features guest artists Tina Cousins on the track Just Around The Hill and Bla Ojne singing Together Again.

No.25 MARSHALL MATHERS LP - Eminem. The new album from the man that according to his bio "hates everyone" follows Slim Shady LP, which peaked at No.73 in April last year. The new album features artists RBX, Sticky Fingaz and D-12 on sixteen "lyrical nightmare" tracks, and is produced by big time rapper Dr. Dre.

No.70 MY NAME IS JOE - Joe. He's been around a few years now but the R&B singer Joe finally makes his mark in the Australian charts with his third album (following Everything and All That I Am). The album includes duets with NSYNC on I Believe In You and Mariah Carey with Thank God I Found You.

No.96 SOUND OF WATER - Saint Etienne. The English threesome of Bob, Pete and Sarah chart in Australia for the first time with their fourth album (following So Tough, Tiger Bay and Good Humour). The album's first single will be How We Used To Live. Sarah (Cracknell) recently provided vocals on the Paul Van Dyk single Tell Me Why (The Riddle) which is at No.68 this week down from a peak of No.57 last week.
