Chartifacts!

SINGLES – In its second week at No.1 nationally, Oops!... I Did It Again is now at the top of all five of ARIA's State charts. With four different titles occupying the No.2 positions across the States, it seems that this probably won't be the last time that Britney's single will feature in this section of Chartifacts. Four weeks ago, No.2 positions down the Eastern coast of Australia took Never Be The Same Again by Melanie C. into the National No.2 position. After slipping back to No.3 for the past three weeks it once again climbs to No.2 but this time it is the other two State charts (South Australia and Western Australia) who have the title listed in the No.2 spot. The only new title in the top 10 belongs the the Finnish funk duo Bomfunk MC's whose first hit Freestyler slides up three spots to rest in the No.10 position.

No.15 I SHOULD'VE NEVER LET YOU GO – Bardot. A mere two months after they swept all before them with their debut single Poison entering the national ARIA chart at No.1, Australia's "made for TV" all girl quintet chart with the second single from their Bardot album (No.1 last month). In doing so, they extinguish any talk (or even thought) of them ever being labelled "One Hit Wonders".

No.20 TOCA'S MIRACLE – Fragma Vs. Coco. This recent UK No.1 single is the innovative fusion by a DJ from Nottingham (DJ Vimto) of two former UK chart singles, 1999's Toca Me by Fragma and the 1997 song I Need A Miracle by Coco. While Fragma's original single Toca Me charted here (No.53 January 2000), this is the first chart appearance for Coco whose CV boasts backing vocalist work with East 17.

No.21 BLOW UP THE POKIES / THANKYOU (FOR LOVING ME AT MY WORST) – The Whitlams. For all their awards, accolades and acclaim over the past five years or so, remarkably this is the first Australian top 50 single for the Sydney band fronted by Tim Freedman. While both their albums have racked up top 15 chart positions and platinum plus sales, their biggest single prior to this week was the No.59 peaking No Aphrodisiac in January 1998.

No.69 MY WAY HOME – Alex Lloyd. After his first taste of chart success with the band Mother Hubbard (their only hit Pain reached No.94 early in 1995), this Sydney singer / songwriter launched his solo career in 1997. So far in that career, Alex has not yet been able to produce the big breakthrough hit, with each of his two previous chart singles peaking in the lower half of the top 100. However the signs are looking good with this, the fourth single from his gold album Black The Sun (No.21 this week) starting its chart life higher than both of his previous chart singles.

No.89 IT FEELS SO GOOD – Sonique. One of the few singles this year to have lasted more than seven days at the top of the UK singles chart, this is the current No.1 in the "Old Dart" for its second week. From the forthcoming album Hear Me Cry, it is the first Australian hit for the English singer / Club DJ whose modus operandi is to sing along with the discs that she is spinning. Although this is her first solo hit, Sonique does have some chart "form", she sang with S-Express for a while from the late 1980s until their dissolution in 1992 on their singles, including the UK hit Mantra For A State Of Mind.

No.98 GIVE A LITTLE LOVE – Sirens. Late in 1975 the original Bay City Rollers version song sailed into the Australian top 5 on a sea of tartan scarves... and Countdown airtime! This up tempo remake is the first chart encounter for the Melbourne trio of Angie, Natalie and Sarah Jane.

ALBUMS - A couple of weeks ago, Pearl Jam debuted at No.1 for the fifth time with their album Binaural. This week it is the turn of their fellow countrymen Bon Jovi to achieve the same milestone with their album Crush. Only Jimmy Barnes and U2 have had more albums debut at the top of the Australian charts (with six each). With the movie now blasting away cinema screens across the country, the Mission Impossible II Soundtrack experiences a form reversal and rebounds from last week's No.11 spot to secure its second week in the top 10 at No.5 (after debuting at No.10 the week before).

No.1 CRUSH – Bon Jovi. After a spell of five years Jon Bon Jovi, Ritchie Sambora, Dave Bryan, Alec John Such and Tico Torres return to the albums chart with what is their sixth Australian No.1 album. They first hit No.1 in mid 1987 with Slippery When Wet, followed by New Jersey (1988), Keep The Faith (1992), Cross-Roads The Best Of (1994) and These Days (1995). The new album includes the single It's My Life (No.9 this week).

No.33 BRAVE NEW WORLD – Iron Maiden. The British rockers return to the limelight once again with their thirteenth chart album since their 1982 top 10 debut with The Number Of The Beast. The new album, which includes the single The Wicker Man, is the first to be recorded with the reformed line-up that includes former members, vocalist Bruce Dickson and guitarist Adrian Smith who both rejoined in February last year.

No.37 LIVING IN THE PRESENT FUTURE – Eagle Eye Cherry. Originally from Sweden, Eagle Eye grew up in New York, but returned to Sweden in the 90's and "became more focused on music and began writing". The new album follows his debut long player Desireless, which peaked at No.68 in May last year. According to his bio, this album has been recorded using members of his family, such as his brother in-law Cameron McVey (a.k.a. Booga Bear).

No.59 CAN'T TAKE ME HOME – Pink. This R&B singer is famous for her out-of-the-bottle hair colour, which is bright Pink! Her debut album includes the single There You Go (No.4 this week), and is described as a cross between hip-hop, soul and fellow female singer Kelis.

No.73 GOODBYE CRUEL WORLD: BEST OF – Custard. Whenever you see the release of a best of, you either think cash in or the end of the band. This one unfortunately means the end of a ten-year career for this Brisbane formed band. The best of includes live favorites, B-sides, rarities and their first single Rockfish Anna. Their highest album chart position was achieved with Loverama (No.19 June 1999).

No.81 THE EVER PASSING MOMENT – MXPX. Five albums down the track, Pokinatcha, Teenage Politics, Life In General, Slowly Going and now this, their first to enter the top 100 album charts. The band took their name from a T-shirt that an early band member wore, which had MP on the front, M for Magnified and P for Plaid, with little x's in between.

No.85 FAMILY VALUES – Various. This is the second album to be released from the Family Values tours across the United States following Family Values '98, which peaked at No.8 in April 1999. This album was recorded live through 1999, and includes performances by Limp Bizkit, Primus, Korn, Filter, Crystal Method, Staind and Redman.

No.88 SUPREME BEINGS OF LEISURE – Supreme Beings Of Leisure. This self-titled release is the chart debut for the US quartet of Geri Soriano-Lightwood, Kiran Shahani, Ramin "Ram" Sakurai and Rick Torres. Their influences range from Massive Attack to Ravi Shankar, which according to their bio is what creates their "funky, sexy and occasionally delirious" sound.
