SINGLES – After the drought comes the flood... In a period of almost three years from the chart topping debut of MmmBop by Hanson in June 1997 through to February 2000, no singles were able to break into the chart any higher than the No.2 position. But in the space of the past four months, titles have been entering at No.1 at the rate of one a month. This week it is the turn of Madison Avenue whose second hit Who The Hell Are You becomes the 14th single to debut at No.1 in Australia... Oddly though, this isn't the first time that the Melbourne duo have enjoyed the prestige of a No.1 debut, that honour going to their first hit Don't Call Me Baby which achieved the feat half way around the Globe in the UK chart a month ago.

No.1 WHO THE HELL ARE YOU? – Madison Avenue. The international success of their first single Don't Call Me Baby (six weeks at No.2 from November 1999, plus No.1 in the UK) has put Andy Van and Cheyne Coates up there with the biggest dance acts around. In addition to three mixes of the title track, this their second single, also includes a remix of Don't Call Me Baby. Both of their hits have reached No.1 on the DJ based ARIA Club chart.

No.13 SHALALA LALA – Vengaboys. This is the second single from the Platinum Album (No.24 March 2000) for the Spanish dance outfit whose hits include We Like To Party (No.2 May 1999) and Boom Boom Boom Boom (No.2 August 1999).

No.40 DESENSITIZED – Invertigo. Produced by Charles Fisher whose previous clients include Savage Garden and Hoodoo Gurus, this is the first chart single for the Melbourne group comprising vocalist Christian Argenti with the Leigh brothers James, Jerry and Vince.

No.48 THE REAL THING – Midnight Oil. The title track from next month's brand new Oils album, this song is a remake of the 1969 Australian No.1 single by Russell Morris. This is the first chart entry since Redneck Wonderland (No.54 June 1998) and biggest since Underwater (No.22 September 1996) for the passionately Australian act. In the week that Madison Avenue add their name to the list of acts who have debuted at No.1 on the singles chart, it is fitting to note that the Oils have the distinction of the first ever No.1 debut on the ARIA national chart, that being the Species Deceases EP in December 1985.

No.50 TOO MUCH OF HEAVEN – Eiffel 65. This is the third single from the album Europop (No.84 this week after reaching No.18 in February) for the "little blue alien" fixated trio from Italy. It follows Blue (Da Ba Dee) (No.1 last November) and Move Your Body (No.4 March 2000).

No.55 LET IT BE THE NIGHT – Kim Lukas. Hot on the heels of her Eiffel 65 remixed single All I Really Want (No.62 February), this is the second ARIA Chart single for the dance diva who was born in England but is currently based in Italy.

No.57 CAN YOU STAND THE HEAT – Anuj. Prior to embarking on his solo career, Anuj was one half of the R&B duo Popboyz whose CV included appearances as support for CDB and Human Nature. The 23 year old Indian born Sydney singer, songwriter and dancer (whose name is pronounced Anooch), is an "instant" chart success with this, his first single debuting at No.31 in New South Wales in its first week of release.

No.66 AMERICAN SHOES – Motor Ace. Produced by Phil McKercher, this is the first National ARIA top 100 hit for the Melbourne quartet of Patrick Robertson, Dave Ong, Matt Balfe and Damian Costlo. The band who have toured with the likes of Foo Fighters and Muse opened their recording account with a self titled EP (No.15 on the ARIA Alternative chart) last August.

No.69 ARE YOU STILL HAVING FUN? – Eagle Eye Cherry. This is the second Australian chart single for the man from the very musical family (his immediate relatives include Neneh, Titiyo and father, Don). While his first hit Save Tonight (No.20 March 1999) was from his previous album Desireless, this one is from his current release, Living In The Present Future which is at No.33 this week after debuting at No.37 last week.

No.92 DAILY TROUBLE / ROCK THE RECORD – Resin Dogs. This is the first national chart entry for the Brisbane funk & hip-hop band whose lineup comprises DJ Katch, Dave Atkins, Geoff Boardman and Chris Bosley. The single is from their Robert Reed (Trouble Funk) produced debut album Grand Theft Auto which is due for release next month.

No.93 SHINE OVER ME – The Screaming Jets. Dave Gleeson and his band of noisy Novocastrians return with their seventeenth Australian hit single in a little under ten years of charting. From their new album Scam (released next month), this single marks the arrival of new member Col Hatchman (formerly of fellow Newcastle band Little Hornet) on drums.

No.98 NO MAN'S WOMAN – Sinead O'Connor. Confronting, controversial (and sometimes, yes even commercial) this Irish singer, songwriter returns to the Australian chart after a self imposed exile of over five years. A taste of her forthcoming album Faith And Courage, this is her first chart single since October 1994 when she reached No.57 with the single Fire On Babylon.

ALBUMS – Given that their first album Yourself Or Someone Like You spent six weeks at No.1 during 1998 and has sold in excess of 600,000 copies in this country, the second Matchbox Twenty album Mad Season By Matchbox Twenty has big shoes to fill. But early in its chart life it is making a good fist of it, bumping last week's chart topping debut (Crush by Bon Jovi) to return for its second week in the No.1 position. With the exception of the Mission Impossible II Soundtrack which is currently at its highest point of No.5, every album in the top 10 has reached No.1 at some point in its chart life...

No.41 OUT THERE AND BACK – Paul Van Dyk. Featuring the singles Tell Me Why (The Riddle) (No.57 May 2000) and Another Way / Avenue (No.56 November 1999), this is the first ARIA chart album for this emerging DJ / Producer from Germany. The CD also includes a limited edition bonus disc containing three new tracks, five remixes and two full-length video clips.

No.43 SAMBANOVA – Pnau. This is the debut release for the Sydney dance act Nick Littlemore and Peter Mayes who pronounce their name P'niaow. Originally released on the Peking Duck label, the album mixes the sounds of hip-hop, disco, Latin sounds and "urban chic", and features a CD Rom component that includes a series of short films.

No.53 FOLD YOUR HANDS CHILD, YOU WALK LIKE A PEASANT – Belle And Sebastian. This is the first Australian chart album for the seven piece band from Scotland's industrial city of Glasgow who won the Best New Band award at the 1999 Brit Awards. It continues the group's penchant for quirky album titles following If Your Feeling Sinister, The Boy With The Arab Strap and Lazy Like Painter Jane.

No.55 GREATEST HITS – SHINING LIKE A NATIONAL GUITAR – Paul Simon. The title of this best of album is taken from a lyric line in the song Graceland, which is featured on this album. The album contains 19 tracks from Paul's solo career including You Can Call Me Al, Mother And Child Reunion, 50 Ways To Leave Your Lover, The Boy In The Bubble, Diamonds On The Soles Of Her Shoes and Me And Julio Down By The School Yard.

Eligibility for these charts is determined by a panel of alternative genre specialists from across the industry... including retailers, wholesalers and print, radio and television media.

Titles become ineligible for this chart once they reach ARIA Gold accreditation or higher.

WEEK COMMENCING 12TH JUNE 2000

Hit Seekers is a chart of current product from acts who have never reached the top 50 on the respective national ARIA singles and albums charts. Positions for this chart are determined from ARIA's weekly national chart surveys.
