THE ARIA REPORT

Chartifacts!

SINGLES – Travelling easily at No.1 for the fourth straight week is the now double platinum certified I'm Outta Love by Anastacia. Moving from No.16 to No.7, The Corrs have the biggest Australian hit single of their career with Breathless. Their second top 10 single surpasses the No.10 peak of their first hit Runaway in June 1996. Meanwhile, last week's new top 10 entry Try Again from the Romeo Must Die Soundtrack slips one spot to No.9 for the first time top tenner Aaliyah.

No.15 SHAKE IT – Kaylan. In June this year the single Rock Me All Night peaked at No.14 on the ARIA national singles chart after a 12 week long "two steps forward, one step back" climb up the top 40. Produced by the Rockmelons, the second hit for brothers Dennis and Darren debuted in the top 10 in three of the ARIA State charts, NSW, Victoria and South Australia.

No.20 LUCKY – Britney Spears. The Australian chart statistics for this 18 year old singer make interesting reading... Six of her seven releases prior to this single have reached ARIA platinum accreditation (or higher). This is her sixth straight top 40 single and second from her current album Oops!... I Did It Again (No.2 May).

No.28 DOESN'T REALLY MATTER – Janet Jackson. Rivalling Michael for the tag of most successful Jackson sibling, Janet is combining her musical career with a similarly accomplished life on screen. Her 29th ARIA chart single is from the Soundtrack to the movie The Nutty Professor II – The Klumps (No.42 two weeks ago). Janet co-stars with Eddie Murphy in the movie.

No.49 LET'S GET LOUD – Jennifer Lopez. A late starter in the music industry after forging a successful career in films, Jennifer recently turned 30 (July 24). This is her fourth chart single following If You Had My Love (No.1 July 1999), Waiting For Tonight (No.4 January 2000) and Feelin' So Good (No.20 March 2000).

No.53 LOVE COME HOME – DJ Jean. The award winning Dutch DJ who has been producing European club hits since the mid 1990s first came to the attention of the Australian mainstream earlier this year with his single The Launch (No.74 February). This is his second hit.

No.56 FALL TO THE GROUND / NOT THE SAME – Bodyjar. Hot on the heels of their first ARIA top 100 single Not The Same (No.69 July 2000), the hard working, hard rocking Melbourne band are back with another slab of sound from their soon to be released album How It Works.

No.70 REACH – S Club 7. This is the first single from the seven member vocal group's second album 7 which is due for release at the end of this month. It follows Bring It All Back (No.3 November 1999), S Club Party (No.2 February 2000) and Two In A Million (No.25 May 2000), all of which were from their debut album S Club (No.17 February 2000).

No.73 SANDWICHES – Detroit Grand Pubahs. Yes, they are from Detroit, but exactly which Order these Pubahs are from is questionable... This is the first hit for the hungry duo of Andy "Dr. Toefinger" Toth and Paris The Black FU.

ALBUMS – John Farnham is no stranger at the top of the Australian albums chart, his seven chart toppers having spent a total of 43 weeks in the No.1 spot since late 1986. This week however, he has only his third album to debut in the top spot with 33 1/3 following Age Of Reason (1988) and Chain Reaction (1990).

No.1 33 1/3 – John Farnham. The title of this album apparently refers to the length of time that John has been in the music industry. This would date Sadie The Cleaning Lady to the first half of 1967 when, in fact, it didn't chart until the end of that year. Nevertheless, John's career has been a long and remarkable one... A string of hit singles through the late 1960s and 1970s gave way to a quiet period in the early 1980s before the album Whispering Jack (No.1 for 25 weeks from October 1986) confirmed his status as Australia's premier solo artist. Since Whispering Jack his albums have consistently charted at or near the top of the charts with this being his sixth to hit the No.1 spot. His others were Age Of Reason (August 1988), Chain Reaction (October 1990), Then Again... (November 1993), Anthology 1 (October 1997) and his collaboration with Olivia Newton-John and Anthony Warlow – Highlights From The Main Event (December 1998).

No.11 RONAN – Ronan Keating. Featuring both of his solo hits, When You Say Nothing At All (No.3 August 1999) and Life Is A Rollercoaster (No.13 this week), this is the first post-Boyzone album for the 23 year old Irish singer, songwriter and band manager (Westlife).

No.66 ANTHEMS – A CELEBRATION OF AUSTRALIA – John Williamson. With the Sydney Olympic Games just a month away comes the news that John, long an icon at Australian sporting and cultural events, has been appointed by the AOC to perform and "fire up the crowd" at events throughout the games. Coming less than a year after he reached No.10 with his last album The Way It Is (September 1999), this is Willo's fourteenth chart album since The Smell Of Gum Leaves in 1984.

No.81 INFEST – Papa Roach. This is the Australian chart debut for the Northern Californian quartet of Jacoby Shaddix (Coby Dick), Jerry Horton, Dave Buckner and Tobin Esperance which formed in 1993. Their first album, Old Friends From Young Years was released in 1997.

Following are the titles that were omitted from Chartifacts when they debuted last week:

No.85 JAMBOREE – Naughty By Nature. Originally released twelve months ago, this single remained dormant until the platinum single Holiday (No.8 May 2000) reignited their career. This is their tenth Australian hit single.

No.97 OOOH – De La Soul. It was ten years ago that this New York hip hop trio first charted in Australia with the funky track Eye Know (No.78 July 1990). They had four hits in as many years including the gold No.4 single Ring Ring Ring (July 1991), but this is their first top 100 entry since Breakadawn (No.73 November 1993).

No.98 HEART OF ASIA – Watergate. The first Australian chart hit for this German act is a dance version of the 1983 hit Forbidden Colours by David Sylvian and Ryulchi Sakamoto.

No.99 COMMUNITY LIFE – Yothu Yindi. Produced by Andrew Farriss (of INXS fame) and featuring band member Jodie Cockatoo Creed on vocals, this is the first single from the Northern Territory band's imminent album Garma. It is their fifth ARIA top 100 single and first since World Turning (No.56 November 1993).

No.100 EMBRACE THE SUNSHINE – Quench. With European record sales of over one million units, Quench (aka CJ Dolan) is far more successful offshore than he is at home here in Australia. From his forthcoming second album Consequencial, the Melbourne based artist's first Australian chart single features the vocals of Lisa Worley.
