SINGLES – Each year around this time, it always seems that one or two singles stand out from the crowd to become the party hits of the Summer season. Recent Summers have produced the massive hits Mambo No.5 and Blue (Da Ba Dee) (both last year), Pretty Fly (For A White Guy) (Uh-huh, uh-huh!) (1998/99), Tubthumping (1997/98), Wannabe (1996/97) and Gangsta's Paradise (1995/96). With three weeks at No.1 already under its belt and a chorus as infectious as malaria, Who Let The Dogs Out by the Bahaman trio Baha Men appears to have the inside running for this year's title. Two new singles enter this week's top 10... Leaping from No.12 to No.5 is the recent US No.1 hit Independent Women (Part 1), the third Australian top 10 single for Destiny's Child, while bulleting nine spots to No.10 is 7 Days, the second consecutive top 10 hit for the stardom bound UK teen R&B artist Craig David.

No.46 DISPOSABLE TEENS – Marilyn Manson. Thriving on the alienation of their adoring core fanbase (and the repulsion of almost everybody else), this is the ninth Australian top 100 single since 1996 for the five member glam rock outfit fronted by (and named after) a man once known by the very suburban name of Brian Warner. It is the first single from their current album Holy Wood (No.8 a couple of weeks ago).

No.53 CRANK THE SYSTEM – Superheist. With an album due sometime early next year, this is the second chart single for the five man Melbourne band comprising Berger, D. W. Norton, Sean, Fetah and Drew. Their previous mainstream chart appearance was with the EP 8 Miles High which spent a week at No.95 back in January of this year.

No.60 CHANCES ARE – Invertigo. Written by band members James and Vince Leigh and produced by ARIA Award winner Charles Fisher, this is the second single from the Melbourne band's upcoming debut album Forum following Desensitized (No.29 July 2000).

No.61 YELLOW – Coldplay. This is the second single from the excellently received album Parachutes (No.31 October). The first chart single for the young British band fronted by Chris Martin was Shiver which reached No.57 in September.

No.66 SONG FOR JASMINE – 28 Days. Yet another single from the Melbourne thrash band's chart topping debut album Upstyledown (July 2000). This is their fifth chart single in eighteen months and fourth this year from the album following Sucker (No.21 February), Rip It Up (No.12 June) and Goodbye (No.50 September).

No.86 NOMADSLAND – Ganggajang. The veterans among this week's debutants, this Australian collective have been charting since the mid 1980s when their first four singles all made the national top 50, beginning with Gimme Some Loving (No.44 February 1985). This single ends a six year absence with their last two chart singles both coming in the first half of 1994, namely Hundreds Of Languages (No.62 February) and Talk To Me (No.88 May).

No.88 YOU'RE A GOD – Vertical Horizon. Back in August the US quartet of Keith Kane, Matt Scannell, Ed Toth and Sean Hurley reached the Australian chart for the first time with the single Everything You Want (No.24) and the album of the same name (No.66). This is the second single from that album.

No.89 WE ARE ALIVE – Paul Van Dyk. After a decade long apprenticeship playing the clubs and mixing the likes of New Order and Sven Vath, East German born Paul hit the Australian charts in his own right last year with the double-A listed Another Way / Avenue (No.56 November 1999). Another mid chart single Tell Me Why (The Riddle) followed this May (No.57) prior to this, his third chart single.

ALBUMS – Until a couple of weeks ago, The Beatles and The Rolling Stones shared the chart honour of being the only two acts to have hit the top of the Australian albums charts during the 1960s, 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. The chart topping achievement of the latest Beatles album 1 (which is still firmly ensconced at the top for a third week) raises the bar one notch. It will be interesting to see if the Stones (who last hit the top in July 1994 with the album Voodoo Lounge) will rise to the challenge. Only one brand new album makes its way into the ranks of the top 10 this week, that being Whatever..., the second release for radio comedian Guido Hatzis which makes its top 100 debut in the No.8 spot.

No.8 WHATEVER... – Guido Hatzis. The second album for this part time comedian, full time self confessed Greek Adonis has even more "Skippy Chicks" swooning than his first. His debut album Do Not Talk Over Me reached No.11 in December 1999.

No.29 SINCE I LEFT YOU – The Avalanches. Chock full of samples, loops and other fiddly bits, this is the debut album for the Melbourne five piece who first graced the charts a couple of months ago with their single Frontier Psychiatrist (No.49 October 2000) which, oddly enough, features on this album.

No.40 COAST TO COAST – Westlife. This Irish vocal quintet recently sent UK chartologists scurrying for the record books as their seventh single My Love became their seventh consecutive UK No.1 hit, a feat never before achieved on the UK charts. Co-managed by Ronan Keating, Nicky Byrne, Shane Filan, Mark Feehily, Kian Egan and Bryan McFadden have not achieved the same dizzying level of success in Australia, with four chart singles (all top 40) and one previous album, their self titled debut which reached No.15 in November 1999.

No.59 THINGS FALLING APART – Nine Inch Nails. Largely a collection of remixes, this the fourth Australian chart album for Trent Reznor's brooding, snarly band follows the negative path trodden by its predecessors such as The Downward Spiral (No.12 October 1994) and their most recent release The Fragile (No.2 September 1999).

No.63 TANGENTS – A TEA PARTY COLLECTION – The Tea Party. Over the past six years the four previous albums by the Canadian trio of Jeff Martin, Stuart Chatwood and Jeff Burrows have all reached the Australian top 30 with their most successful being Transmission which reached No.5 (July 1997). This retrospective includes tracks from each of their previous albums as well as some new material including the forthcoming single Walking Wounded.

No.87 QANTAS PRESENTS THE SPIRIT OF AUSTRALIA – Various. Released to coincide with the 80th anniversary of the formation of Qantas, this charity CD features fourteen tracks by young performers (ranging in age from 8 to 18 years old) from across Australia. Songs on the album include Waltzing Matilda, Great Southern Land, My Island Home and the Qantas signature tune I Still Call Australia Home. Proceeds from the album are going to Canteen, a charity supporting young Australians with cancer.
