SINGLES – With just one weekly chart remaining to be calculated in 2000, the end of year results have been tallied and will be revealed in this and the following pages. To this point in the year a total of 518 singles have occupied positions within the top 100, of which 20 have made it all the way to the No.1 spot. While the previous 17 years had only produced a total of ten singles that achieved the ultimate debut, this year re-wrote the record book by producing another eight that all hit the top in their first chart week.

No. 1 I'M OUTTA LOVE - Anastacia. With her distinctive tinted glasses and powerful vocal chords, Anastacia emerged from total obscurity mid year to produce this, one of only two singles to spend as many as five weeks in the Nation's No.1 spot (July / August). Its stay of 15 weeks in the National top 10 was three weeks longer than its nearest rivals.

No. 2 TEENAGE DIRTBAG - Wheatus. Singles at or near No.1 at this, the money end of the year usually fare well on the end of year listings and 2000 is no exception. From the movie Loser this track first hit No.1 in November before being over-run by the rampaging Baha Men single Who Let The Dogs Out. That single's deletion while still at No.1 has allowed Wheatus to reclaim the top spot as the year ends

No. 3 FREESTYLER - Bomfunk MC's. Prior to this single (which hit No.1 for 3 weeks in July), the nearest this Finnish duo had come to stardom in Australia was with their No.99 chart single Uprocking Beats in March 1999.

No. 4 MUSIC - Madonna. Hitting No.1 for four weeks in August and September, this was one of the 8 singles to debut at No.1 during the year (and the second by Madonna following American Pie in March). While most of the biggest hits this year were by more recent arrivals to the chart scene, Madonna Ciccone is a seasoned veteran with her singles featuring prominently in year end charts through the 1980s and early 1990s. The title track of her latest album, Music gives the Material Mum her best year end placement since Vogue / Keep It Together which was ARIA's No.3 single of 1990.

No. 5 SAY MY NAME Destiny's Child. Despite almost constant turmoil enveloping this girl group during 2000 (including line-up changes and litigation) they were still able to place three singles into the Australian top 5 during the year, with this May No.1 coming in ahead of Jumpin' Jumpin' (No.2 in August and No.17 for the year) and Independent Women (Part 1) (No.4 and rising as 2000 ends and No.58 for the year).

No. 6 POISON - Bardot. Although the overnight success of this "made on television" girl group was entirely predictable, they have so far confounded some critics by following this, their No.1 debuting (in April) first hit with two more top 20 hits, both of which also appear in the top 100 of the year, I Should've Never Let You Go at No.96 and These Days at No.100.

No. 7 BYE BYE BYE - *N Sync. After three moderate chart singles in 1999, this vocal quintet hit the big time in March 2000 when this single became the second hit of the year to debut in the No.1 position and the first of the 2 singles to spend 5 weeks at No.1 during the year. It remains their only Australian top 10 single to date with its follow-up, It's Gonna Be Me peaking at No.11 in July.

No. 8 WHO THE HELL ARE YOU - Madison Avenue. Yet another of the singles that debuted at No.1 in 2000 (this one in June), this was the second of three major hits for the Melbourne dance duo over the past year. It followed Don't Call Me Baby which sold strongly enough at the end of last year to rank at No.7 for that year's chart and still had enough in reserve to rank at No.83 on this year's list.

No. 9 GROOVEJET (IF THIS AIN'T LOVE) - Spiller. Featuring the vocals of Sophie Ellis Bextor, this is the first Australian hit for the Italian producer Christiano Spiller. In addition to its three weeks at the top of the national singles chart (October / November) this song has the distinction of enjoying the longest run at the top of the ARIA Club chart during the year with a total of 13 weeks.

No. 10 SHACKLES (PRAISE YOU) - Mary Mary. The only one of the year's top 10 singles that didn't reach the top of the charts, this, the debut single for gospel sisters Erica and Tina Atkins hit No.2 in September.

ALBUMS - 2000 has proven to be an excellent year for followers of top performing Australian albums with a record setting 9 of the year's 19 No.1s by local acts. Their 23 weeks at the top of the chart also compares well, being the best since 1997's Savage Garden inspired 29 weeks. With one chart remaining to be calculated for the year, a total of 443 albums have so far graced the weekly national top 100 lists, of which 86 have appeared in the national top 10.

No. 1 1 - The Beatles. As if it needs validation, the Fab Four again demonstrate why they are almost universally considered the World's greatest ever pop band. Thirty years after their demise and twenty after the tragic death of John Lennon this album has swept all before it and claimed crown as the year's best seller based on not much more than one month's sales. With five weeks at No.1 (and counting), it is their best charting album since Beatles Ballads which spent seven weeks at No.1 in May and June 1981. It is also their best end of year placement since their heyday in the 1960s when their run of smash albums included With The Beatles, Revolver, Sgt Peppers Lonely Hearts Club Band, Abbey Road and numerous others.

No. 2 ODYSSEY NUMBER FIVE - Powderfinger. With an unbroken run of 15 weeks in the national top 10 since its No.1 debut in September and holding down the No.2 spot as the year ended, this Brisbane band came close to locking down the coveted No.1 album of the year tag. Alas, the phenomenal late surge by The Beatles ultimately denied them that honour, but this album is nonetheless a smash and gains the title of the best selling Australian album of the year.

No. 3 AFFIRMATION - Savage Garden. With a worst chart position during 2000 of No.27, this is one of only five albums to spend the whole year in the national top 100 and the only to remain all of that time in the top 40. It also outlasted everyone else in terms of weeks in the top 10 during the year with its 41 weeks a clear two months longer than its nearest rival, Play by Moby. All of this contributed to the album improving on its No.4 position on the best of 1999 chart.

No. 4 THE POWER - Vanessa Amorosi. Although this album only managed one week at No.1 (on debut in April), the Melbourne teenager's debut album ultimately ranked as the fourth longest stay in the top 10 (28 weeks) and has produced two platinum and two gold singles, all of which have reached the national top 20.

No. 5 REFLECTOR - Killing Heidi. This multiple ARIA Award winning album stormed into the chart at No.1 in March where it remained for six of the next seven weeks (only bowing to the debut of Vanessa Amorosi's album The Power for a week in April). Three of the album's four singles to date have reached the national top 10 including the double listed Mascara / Leave Me Alone which spent three weeks at No.1 in January and February.

No. 6 CALIFORNICATION - Red Hot Chili Peppers. This album has been in the Australian top 10 for 52 of the 80 weeks since its June 1999 release with 31 of those weeks coming during 2000. Like the Savage Garden entry at No.3 above, this album is also in the year ending top 10 for its second consecutive year, having landed at No.9 in the countdown of 1999 hits.

No. 7 MACY GRAY ON HOW LIFE IS - Macy Gray. This album has the dual honour of being not only the first No.1 of the year, but also the longest running chart topper, spending a total of eight weeks in the prime spot through January and February 2000.

No. 8 ALL THAT YOU CAN'T LEAVE BEHIND - U2. This Irish "supergroup" are no strangers to end of year album charts – they've placed albums in the Australian year end top 10s in 1984, 1987, 1993 and most recently 1998 (when their album Best Of 1980 – 1990 was No.6 for the year). Featuring the No.1 debuting single Beautiful Day (October), this album spent two weeks at No.1 (also on debut) in November.

No. 9 NOT THAT KIND - Anastacia. Having the best selling single of the year is certainly an advantage when it comes to racking up significant album sales. A total unknown prior to the June 2000 release of her single I'm Outta Love, this, her accompanying album, subsequently entered the chart at No.10 in July, climbing to No.2 in August and racking up triple platinum sales by the end of 2000.

No. 10 PLAY - Moby. The story of this album has two separate and distinct parts... Released in May 1999, it charted for the remainder of that year without climbing above No.27 (October). However, from a low of No.76 in December 1999 its fortunes changed and it began a climb that would take it to No.1 twice, firstly for one week in February 2000 and then again for a couple more weeks in July / August. Ultimately it remained 33 weeks in the top 10 with only Savage Garden's Affirmation album spending longer in the top 10 during the year.
